THIS SIX WEEKS

- Book Fair was a success! We were able to raise $500 in scholastic dollars for our ELA classroom libraries.
- CTE Fair was held in the library. 8th grade students visited at several booths including the culinary booth and law booth.
- 6th grade: Sora and Destiny lessons
- 7th grade: book tasting activity
- 8th grade: book trailers
- Pan American Librarian Ms. Garza came by and had students try out the occulus VR goggles. We also made buttons and stickers.
- In anticipation of the author Visit with Neal Shusterman, Mrs. Martinez gave away 5 copies of "The Toll."

OCCULUS VR GOGGLES

BUTTON MAKING
BOOK TASTING WITH 7TH GRADE.

TOLL GIVEAWAY WINNERS
COMING SOON

- Literacy Night is coming December 12th! My station will be Creating Christmas Trees with cups! Candy will be distributed to those who stop by!
- Amnesty Week is coming. Mrs. Martinez will be forgiving all OVERDUE FINES. See Mrs. Martinez to have your fines forgiven.
- Google Hangout with author of "How Dimple Met Rishi," Sandya Menon on January 13th. (see Mrs. Martinez if interested)
- Book Fair at the end of January. Dates January 27-31

ABOUT US

Facebook: @libraryatlms

Statistics:
Class Visits: 48
Student Visits: 72 (library use only does not include book club or makerspace)
Books Circulated: 850

743 West Southcross Boulevard
(210) 989-2410
rosie.martinez@myisd.net
harlandale.libguides.com/lms